The "Codless" Cod.

Now we are told that "boneless cod" shipped out of Gloucester, Mass., is not only "boneless," but "codless," the same being prepared from pollock. We are assured that pollock is all right, much whiter and sweeter than cod, but is unfortunate. It has to masquerade in order to get a market.—Mobile Register.

Caught Two Tile Fish.

The sch. Lizzie M. Stanley, which arrived at Boston yesterday with 90,000 pounds of ground fish, also brought in two tile fish, weighing about four pounds, which were on the northern edge of Georges in 100 fathoms of water.

WELL EARNED VACATION.

Capt. Elroy Prior Will Remain Ashore This Winter.

First Respite After Fifteen Years Continuous Service.

After stocking $22,000 in the mackerel seining fishery since the middle of May, and breaking all his own previous records by rolling up $32,000 since January 1, 1903, the extra $10,000 being made in the haddock fishery, Capt. Elroy Prior, Gloucester's greatest all around fishing skipper, will, after 15 years of continuous service in the fisheries from this port, take for the first time in his most successful career a well earned vacation ashore.

Capt. Prior does not intend to go at all this winter, saying that he thinks he has earned at least one winter on the land and will place Thomas Prior, his cousin, in command of his craft in the winter haddock fishery.

With his wife he will first spend a few weeks visiting in Nova Scotia and will then return to his home in this city for a deserved rest and season of recreation.

Capt. Joseph Smith of sch. Bertha and Pearl which has hauled up for the season, has as usual made a big record, stocking $23,000 in the mackerel fishery, the crew sharing $540.
